

EUCHARIST
CHURCH

Rector Profile

Qualifications: MDiv or equivalent; 5+ years as a priest within an Anglican parish.

Theology: Committed to historic and catholic Christianity; forming Great Tradition¹ Christians over making Anglicans; deeply committed to a sacramental imagination; practices and articulates a monastic-inspired spirituality; commitment to a traditional, biblical view of Christian sexuality and able to clearly articulate and winsomely express these convictions.

Pastoral Style: Warm, pastoral, non-anxious presence; adept at handling the complexities of an ever-changing urban congregation (transiency, urban busyness, diversity, etc.); able to pastor people across a political / ideological spectrum; adept at handling the complexities of living in a post-Christian context.

Leadership Style: Collaborative, visionary leader, who leads from a posture of humility, who is able to deepen our regional vision of ministry.

Churchmanship: Convictional preference for a liturgically-oriented Anglican church; views High Church forms (vestments, manual acts, emphasizing the Liturgical calendar, smells & bells, etc.) as inherently laden with missional potential, while comfortable seeing High Church forms combined with contemporary aesthetics ("ancient-future" worship); three-stream (Sacrament, Scripture, Spirit).

Teaching Emphases: Compelling and insightfully biblical preacher / teacher who has a christocentric approach; holistic Christian formation according to the Great Tradition; celebrating catechetical formation and monasticism as a rich resource / tradition of formation.

What We Can Offer:

- A vibrant, healthy, growing, financially-viable church to lead in one of the most interesting mission fields in the world.
- A healthy, committed, talented, and diverse staff and leadership team.
- A compensation package that is realistic to the cost of living in San Francisco including salary, health insurance for your whole family, retirement, and reimbursable expenses.

Approximate Start Date: We're looking for someone who is ready to begin this role somewhere in the range of April to July 2025, but open to earlier or later for the right candidate.

Search Process: The vestry is currently gathering resumes and applications from interested candidates and will begin interviewing soon. In order to apply, email our Vestry at vestry@eucharistsf.org.

¹ By Great Tradition we mean "mere Christianity", in the words of C.S. Lewis; paleo-orthodoxy; what the Church has taught, practiced, and believed especially in its unified eras (i.e. the first 1,000 years) and echoed in the Scriptures, creeds, ecumenical councils, hymns, iconography, liturgies, traditions/practices.
